Study abroad in Querétaro, México
Spring Term 2009

March 29 - June 5

Querétaro, located in the heart of Mexico, is a crossroads where traditional and modern cultural heritage intersect. Founded in 1531, the city's colonial architecture has won it the UNESCO designation of World Heritage Site. Since 1986 Querétaro has been a top Study Abroad destination for UO students. INTENSIVE SPANISH is held at the Universidad Autónoma de Querétaro and administered by the Interamerican University Studies Institute with offices in Eugene and Querétaro. IUSI co-sponsors the INTENSIVE SPANISH Program with the University of Oregon. Management of and liability for the Program are the full responsibility of IUSI.
