IUSI Scholarship Costa Rica ;Pura Vida!

Interamerican University Studies Institute offers two partial tuition scholarships for the Costa Rica ;Pura Vida! 2007 program. The dates for the session are:

June 22 – July 18, 2007

Purpose: To enable deserving high school students to participate in Costa Rica ;Pura Vida! in the summer of 2007. A complete description of the program can be found on the website.

The scholarship is in the amount of $1,385. In addition, IUSI will provide interested applicants with a packet of information on fundraising to assist with the remaining tuition and fees as well as personal expenses, estimated to be $85 per week.

Eligibility: The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of financial need to a student who has a demonstrable interest in biology and Spanish. Additional requirements for eligibility to participate in the program are listed on the program flyer.

To apply: Complete the application for Costa Rica ;Pura Vida! and submit to IUSI. Candidates should also submit the scholarship form at the same time. Applications must be received by IUSI not later than February 9, 2007. No deposit is required for scholarship applicants. Because we will be interviewing your references by phone or e mail, it may take several weeks to reach an award decision. All applicants will be notified immediately thereafter.

You should indicate your preference for one of the three sessions and list one more session as an alternative.

Questions or further information: Please call IUSI at 1 800-345-4874. Contact persons: Robert Jackson or Fernando Calderón.
